Reference Morrell to Wick memorandum dated 1-31-67, captioned "William Loeb, President and Publisher, Manchester, New Hampshire, Union Leader," a copy of which is attached.

In connection with this aforementioned memorandum, it was suggested that Loeb be placed on the "Do Not Contact" list and the Director noted "Yes" to this suggestion.

The current edition of "Who's Who," shows Loeb was born on December 26, 1905, at Washington, D. C., and is presently married to the former [redacted]. He is shown as the President and Publisher of the "Saint Albans (Vt.) Daily Messenger," "Burlington (Vt.) Daily News," "Manchester (New Hampshire) Union Leader," and the "New Hampshire Sunday News" (Manchester, New Hampshire). He is also listed as publisher of the "Haverhill (Mass.) Journal" and is associated with the Associated Newspapers, Incorporated, Reno, Nevada. His home address is given as 1750 Skyline Boulevard, Reno, Nevada.

"The Evening Star," Washington, D. C., on 1-31-67, reported Loeb's residence as Prides Crossing, Massachusetts.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That Loeb's name be added to the "Do Not Contact" list and attached memorandum be sent to Messrs. Callahan, ~~Gale~~, ~~Rosen~~ and Sullivan.

2. That the attached letter be sent to SAC, Boston, with copies to Albany and Las Vegas, advising that Loeb has been added to the "Do Not Contact" list.
